IRELAND'S RENEWED BLOODSHED.

DUBLIN SHOOTS TWO BRITISH OFFICERS.

London, February 20.

Two British officers have been shot dead in Dublin.

Later.

One of the officers shot in Dublin was seriously wounded but is still living.

The officers, accompanied by a private, were riding in a motor car. A score of armed men opened fire. The driver accelerated speed and the car outdistanced the attackers.

RELEASED.

The Sinn Fein footballers, whose arrest by Ulster men caused much agitation in South Ireland, were released from Londonderry prison yesterday evening.

ATTACKS SINCE THE TREATY.

London, February 20.

In the House of Commons, in answer to questions, Mr. Winston Churchill stated that since signing of the treaty there had been attacks against the police and 34 against the military in Southern Ireland. The former had lost eleven killed and two wounded: the latter 34 killed and four wounded.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

GILT-EDGED SECURITIES BUOYANT.

London, February 20.

At the Stock Exchange there have been dealings in Siamese loan at 3 per cent. premium. Gilt-edged securities showed buoyancy. The rises were a surprise for even their most ardent supporters. Consols were quoted at 56¾, war loan 5 per cent. at 97, conversion 3½ per cent. at 74, Indian 7 per cent. at 107½, 5 per cent. at 94¼, Union of South Africa 6 per cent. seconds at 104, and Kenya 6 per cent. at 103½.

The prices at the end of December were Consols 50¼, war loan 5 per cent. 92¼, conversion 3½ per cent. 66¼, Indian 7 per cent. 104½ 5 per cent 92¼, Union of South Africa 6 per cent. seconds 99, and Kenya 6 per cent. 97¼.

RUSSIAN FAMINE HORROR.

TRANSPORT TRAGICALLY INADEQUATE.

London, February 20.

In the House of Commons at question time, Sir Philip Lloyd Greame additional Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said he was not able to give reliable figures with regard to the number affected by the famine in Russia or who has died of starvation but undoubtedly the situation in some parts of the famine area was very dangerous. He mentioned that Sir Benjamin Robertson, the famine expert, had expressed the opinion that owing to the inadequacy of Russian transport no more imports of foodstuffs than had already been arranged to the middle of April could be dealt with. No British relief had been diverted to feed the Bolshevist army or maintain the Soviet Government and as far as the Government was aware this also applied to contributions from other countries.

PACIFIC TREATY NEGOTIATIONS.

EVERYTHING ABOVE BOARD.

Washington, February 20.

In the Senate, President Harding, replying to the resolution asking him for full information regarding the negotiation of the Pacific Treaty said it was impossible to furnish the required information because most of the negotiations were conducted without record and it was not compatible with public interests to disclose confidential negotiations between the powers concerned. He declared there were no concealed undertakings and no secret exchanges of notes.

FORMER GERMAN CABLES.

ANOTHER WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.

Washington, February 20.

Delegates from Britain, America, Japan, France and Italy will attend a conference on February 23 to discuss the disposition of former German cables in the Atlantic, also to ratify the Washington decision distributing former German Pacific cables among Japan, America and the Netherlands.

YAP TREATY.

After an hour's debate, the foreign relations committee by 10 votes to one reported in favour of the Yap treaty.

BOTTOMLEY'S FINANCES.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

London, February 20.

Following the acquittal at Birmingham of the printer Bigland at the Shropshire Assizes on Saturday on a charge of inciting to extort money from Mr. Horatio Bottomley, M. P., and Mr. Justice Darling's severe comments on Mr. Bottomley's failure to go into the witness box to refute Bigland's serious allegations of swindling, Mr. Bottomley has written to the Public Prosecutor inviting him to send a representative to whom he will make a detailed statement which could be used as evidence if necessary and to produce every available document he possesses.

INDIAN TEA CROP.

LATEST ESTIMATES.

London, February 20

Cabled particulars of the Indian tea crop position show that the total crop in North East India on February 2 was estimated at 242,000,000 lbs., compared with 311,000,000 lbs. in 1920, of which 228,750,000 lbs. are accounted for as follows:—136,250,000 shipped, 41,750,000 to be shipped, 42,125,000 sold in Calcutta, and 7,750,000 awaiting sale in Calcutta, leaving a balance of 13 which may be accounted for by stocks in transit.

WORLD WHEAT CONTROL

GIGANTIC POOL PLANNED.

Sydney, February 20.

It is reported that plans have been prepared for the formation of a gigantic world-wide co-operative wheat marketing organisation which will eventually control the crops of Canada, the United States, and Australia. Mr. Trethowan, the chairman of the voluntary wheat pool is going to London en route for Canada and the United States to consult the wheat organisations there regarding the scheme.

BRITAIN'S AMERICAN DEBT.

£25,000,000 SIX MONTHS' INTEREST.

London, February 20.

In the House of Commons Commander Hilton Young, Financial Secretary foreshadowed the provision of £25,000,000 in the coming budget for the purpose of paying off six months' interest on the British debt to America.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS.

HONGKONG SHIELD COMPETITION.

UNITED v TAMAR.

[Owing to the pressure on our space in consequence of the races football news had to be held over until to-day.]

This game was transferred to the Club ground, the teams turning out as follows:—

"Tamar" Mitch: Smith, Tomlinson: Harper, Hudson, Bryant: Hill, Oxland, Grant, Bird, Brazendale.

United:—Beach: Sepher, Hopper: Urquhart, Laing; Leonard: Cheach, Samy, Valentine, May, Payne.

Referee, Mr. Newton.

United won the toss and Grant started the game against the wind. The United were soon attacking. A pass to Cheah saw that player overrun the line, and play was transferred where Grant missed a fine chance to open the score for the Sailors. From the kick Brazendale received and forced a corner off Hopper. The kick was well placed and Grant heading in opened the score for the Sailors. United pressed from the kick off, but hands close in relieved and play was transferred, Hopper stopping a dangerous movement by the "Tamar" front line, Laing sent to touch well down. May received from the throw in and going down passed to Valentine who enticed Mitch from goal and sent into an empty net, making the scores level. United came again and Mitch was called on to save at the expense of a corner which was cleared. With the United pressing half time arrived with the scores level at one each.

With the wind in their favour "Tamar" pressed from the restart and forced a corner which after a scramble in goal was cleared. Samy had a fine chance to increase the United score for with only Mitch to beat close in he sent wide of the post. Payne was injured and had to retire for a time. Play travelled from end to end for a time until hands against the "Tamar" sent the United forwards away, and Valentine receiving sent in a screw shot that beat Mitch all the way. With one goal down "Tamar" attacked and forced a corner, which being placed right in front of the goal, Grant again beat Beach by heading in, making the scores level. Both sides now played up to get the lead. Several corners fell to the Sailors but they were unable to convert. With the "Tamar" pressing time arrived with the score level at 2 goals each.

This match will be replayed in midweek and if necessary extra time will be played. On the run of the game United should have won, as several easy chances were missed. Valentine was their outstanding player and Grant and Hudson played well for the Sailors. Mitch in goal seemed nervous.

CLUB v. St. Joseph's.

This match was played on Navy "A" ground at 4.15 p.m., the teams lining up as follows.

Club:—G. Rogder: Gerrard, McPhail: Mair, Stewart, Weyman: McTavish, Forsyth, Begg, Kuhr, England.

St. Joseph's:—Booth: Ismail, Wray: Mills, Hall, Xavier: Routley, Ogley; Sadler, Hyndman, Omar.

Referee, Mr. Smith.

From the start the College pressed, but Gerrard cleared. They returned and forced a corner off McPhail, which was put behind, and play was transferred to the other end where Booth cleared a shot from Kuhr, and Omar receiving went down. Gerrard however was there and kicked to touch. Booth was again called on to clear from Kuhr, and Forsyth forced a corner off Wray. The resulting kick was headed over the bar.

From the kick Routley went away. McPhail miskicking the former tested Rodger, who threw away. The ball fell at the feet of Sadler who struck the crossbar with Rodger beaten. Offside relieved and the Club forward line getting away, Begg opened the score with a fast shot that gave the goalie no chance. From the centre kick the Club again pressed and Begg shot wide when well placed.

Half time score:—Club 1, St. Josephs 0.

Restarting, the Club were the first to attack. McTavish getting away centred. Begg received but struck the cross bar and the ball was cleared by Hyndman. England returned and in clearing Hyndman sent behind, McTavish sending wide from the corner kick. The Club returned to the attack and Forsyth receiving beat Booth, thereby putting the Club two up. From the centre kick, College got away, but Gerrard cleared and play was transferred to the College territory where it remained, McTavish missing an easy chance to increase the score from a pass by Forsyth. With the Club pressing time arrived with the score, [illegible].

SOUTH CHINA v. POLICE.

Played on the Chinese ground. The Police who had not been out for six weeks owing to the strike looked like going down but they played one of their old time Shield games and with the ground on the heavy side and Robertson (who had dropped to right back) playing the one back game to perfection, they managed to beat the Athletic by 2 goals to 0.

A large crowd watched this match which was the attraction of the afternoon, and there is no doubt that the Chinese were surprised at the playing of the Police team. In adopting the short passing game they did the only thing possible with the ground in the condition it was, and the vagaries of the wind. The question of whether Robertson played the game by continually going up and putting the Chinese forwards offside is open to argument, but there is no doubt that he fairly had them guessing. Cargill on the Police right wing was not fast enough and had no control of the ball. Pearson, Watson and Valentire played a lovely game together and for the Chinese Ip Kau and Cheung Wing Shing played well. On the run of the play the Police deserved to win; they now meet the R.G.A. in the semi final, which will take place either on the 4th or 11th of next month.

KOWLOON v "CURLEW."

Played on the Kowloon ground, the teams turning out as follows:—

Kowloon:—Woodman; Wheeler, Mason: Morley, Murrison, Duncan: Millard, Hall, Pasco, Thompson, Coombs.

"Curlew."—Hardy: Hooper, Cleave: Dash, Wilson, Darlington: Taylor, Scott, South, Cook, Lamb.

Referee, Mr. Hollands.

"Curlew" made one change in their team, Darlington coming in for Griffiths at left half. "Curlew" won the toss and Kowloon kicked off with the wind, and were soon attacking. Hands against Pasco relieved, and Lamb got away but sent behind. Kowloon returned to the attack and Pasco and Thompson sent over when well placed. Play returned to midfield for a time until Pasco receiving went down and Cleave in attempting to clear handled well up the field. Wheeler took the kick and the ball helped by the wind came over and entered the net right under the bar, to the surprise of everyone including the Ref. who had to look twice to see if the ball was actually in the net. Stung by this unexpected reverse "Curlew" took the attack but the defence of Wheeler and Mason was too good and they could not get by them. Wheeler clearing with a big punt, play was transferred to the other end where it remained until half time which arrived with Kowloon leading by the only goal scored.

Helped by the wind the Sailors took the attack from the restart, and within five minutes had drawn level, South going through on his own and beating the goalie. Kowloon made an excursion into the Sailors' territory, but Hooper clearing, the "Curlew" forwards went away in a line and finished up by Cook beating Woodman with a ground shot, thereby taking the lead. Not to be outdone the Kowloon team played up pluckily, but it was a case of missed chances. Pasco on two occasions with only the goalie to beat fell over the ball in his eagerness to score.

The Sailors third goal came from a breakaway, Cleave sending South away who finished up by beating Woodman. With only a few minutes to go Kowloon attacked, but again when opportunity occurred to score Thompson repeated Pasco's performance, and time arrived with the "Curlew" winners of a very clean game by 3 goals to 1.

DON'T ENDURE SKIN DISEASE!

Zam-Buk Unequalled in Eczema, Ulcers, Ringworm, etc.

Does your skin get rough, rashy and irritable? Are you troubled with outbreaks of inflamed pimples and blotches? If so, let Zam-Buk soothe, purify and heal your skin. Use it also in eczema, boils, ulceration, abscesses, ringworm, or poisoned sores.

Zam-Buk's remarkable soothing, healing and antiseptic powers are derived from a scientific blending of rare herbal oils and extracts. Where common ointments with their coarse animal fats and mineral impurities choke up the pores, and aggravate skin troubles, Zam-Buk penetrates into the underlying tissues and destroys disease at its root.

For the speedy healing of cuts, burns, scalds and wounds or for ridding the skin and scalp of eruptions and sores, Zam-Buk is worth its weight in gold.

Obtainable of all chemists and medicine vendors in Hongkong, Shanghai and the Far East and The Straits. Sole Proprietors: The Zam-Buk Mfg. Co., Leeds, England.

FOOTBALL

The ground was on the soft side and both goals were under water, and it was difficult for the goalkeepers to keep their feet. It was therefore not surprising that the Kowloon goalkeeper let in three. I am sure that had their forwards taken advantage of the chances offered the same would have happened in the Sailors' goal. On a dry day there is no doubt some of the shots would have been saved. The "Curlew" were undoubtedly the best team but a one goal lead would have been a better result.

R.G.A. v "AMBROSE."

This match was played at Sookunpoo before a large crowd of Service spectators. A well contested and fast game ended in a win for the Gunners by two goals to nil. McHugh and Lelliott were responsible for the score.

SECOND DIVISION.

R.G.A. RES. v. CLUB RES.

This game transferred to the Kowloon ground, resulted in a win for the Gunners by 2 goals to none. There was no score in the first half, although the Club were playing with the wind, and on the change of ends the Artillery getting the same advantage kept their opponents on the defensive. The two goals were scored in the latter part of this half.

SOUTH CHINA "A" v. KOWLOON RES.

A good game was seen on the Chinese ground which resulted in a win for the home team by two goals to 1. Kowloon were leading at half time by the only goal scored, but on the change of ends the Chinese drew level, and just before the end one of the Kowloon defenders unfortunately turned the ball into his own goal.

"CURLEW" RES. v. SOUTH CHINA "B."

This game, played on Navy "A" ground, resulted in a win for the Sailors by 5 goals to 0. The ground being on the heavy side was against the Chinese style of playing, consequently the Sailors had matters pretty much their own way. Riley (2) Hender (2) and Mitchell were the scorers.

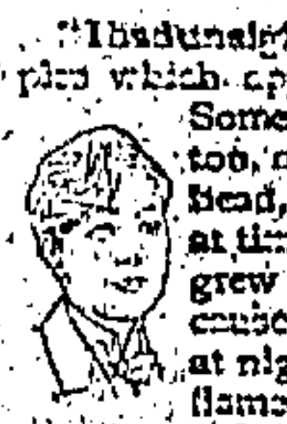
Mr. Guy Leonard Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples



"I had unsightly blotches and pimples which appeared on my neck. Some came to a red, shiny top, and others to a white head, slightly discharging at times. Every day they grew worse and worse and caused disfigurement, and at night they were more inflamed and I could hardly bear the bedclothes.

"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, bathing the pimples with Cuticura Soap and applying the Cuticura Ointment afterwards, morning and night. In two days there was a great improvement, and two weeks' treatment gave me a clear complexion. I was healed." (Signed) Guy Leonard, Oak Cottage, Rayne, Essex, Eng.

Often distressing skin troubles may be prevented by using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for all toilet purposes.

Soap 1s., Ointment 1s. 3d. and 2s. 6d. Sold throughout the Empire. For sample each free address: F. Newbery & Sons, Ltd., 27, Charterhouse Sq., London, E.C. 1. Also for mail orders with price. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

OF NONCONFORMING ROGUES.

It is respectfully requested by the management that anyone inadvertently reading these remarks should not forget that the word "nonconformist" has meanings beyond the narrow and special one which custom causes it to wear. For the purposes of this discussion, such as they are, the word "nonconformist" is to conform to any popular fashion. It will then be admitted, by all save the usual cantankerous reader who is nonconformist enough to refuse to conform to our rules of debate, that a person who does not attend the Races is a nonconformist, and guilty of nonconformity in one of its most aggravated forms. We have not any doubt that an interesting article might be written on the subject of "Hongkong as it looks in Race Week, to the Eye of a Nonconformist." Such an article would describe the desolate appearance of such parts of Hongkong as are remote from the Race Course, and off the main routes to it. It would favour us with peeps into offices and places of business, assuming that its writer could obtain the assistance of some Asmodeus. For we heard yesterday of a nonconformist who went back after tiffin to work at his office, and found himself locked out. Even his office coolies appeared to have been swept away in the tide of equestrian excitements. Such an article might be written; we have said nothing about getting it published. Nonconformists spurred to this literary enterprise by our suggestion are warned not to hope for its appearance in the China Mail, not even with that innuendoish label, "Contributed," upon it. For we consider that the nonconforming eye would most likely be jaundiced, and the tongue to co-operate with it bitter. Not that conformists may not be jealous and bitter too. Indeed, that which the conformist considers the "sound instinct" that leads a man to like to be like his neighbours, to be clubbable and sociable and inconspicuous, involves a certain severity of regard where the eccentrics, the nonconformists are concerned. We are discussing a division of humanity that entails mutual criticism, mutual disapproval, mutual distrust and contempt. On the one side there is a noticeable tendency to the use of epithets like mob, canaille, Philistines, sheep, and so on. On the other we hear insinuations of insanity, imputations of conceited egotism, the itch to be peculiar, Rogue Elephantoy, and the like. The conformist is respectable and a gentleman. The nonconformist is almost by his own confession, is an Outsider. Certainly, in Hongkong during Race Week, a most sure way of feeling an Outsider is not to go to the races.

Last Night's Revels.

Everybody who went there was saying to-day that the S.P.C.A.'s fancy dress ball last night was a great success. We would have had to take their word for it, since for some reason or other the customary press invitations were withheld, but for the fact that the office boy managed to slip through disguised as a piece of blotting paper. From the look of him this morning we should say that the absorbent aspect of his role must have been well sustained. He tells us that the City Hall was again crowded beyond comfort but that it was worth the jostling to be part of such a brilliant pageant. There were no prizes awarded for costumes (he thinks the judges would never have been able to make up their minds anyway) but souvenirs were handed out to the holders of three lucky numbers. He thought the prettiest dress was the Swiss (?) costume worn by the lady who handed him a programme at the top of the stairs, the most original was the gentleman who masqueraded as an amah, ("baby" and all), and he enjoyed most the spectacle of an eminent K.C. foxtrotting in a splendid red tailed coat.

Coolies for Australia?

In a note the other day about the "White Australia" policy a China Mail writer suggested that Mr. Hughes, the Commonwealth Prime Minister, who so confidently predicted that the world would stand behind Australia in her anti-Asiatic policy, was likely to be disillusioned. The opinion of a Straits paper which called it "an impossible policy" was quoted as an example that the British Empire was not unanimous on the point and the latest papers from Australia show that down there a strongly dissentient note has been sounded by the Premier of South Australia (Mr. Barwell). Mr. Barwell says that experience goes to show that only coloured races can develop Australia's at present uninhabited Northern Territory and he suggests that a question worthy of consideration is that selected Asiatics be permitted to settle in the country with limited rights of citizenship. His temerity in thus challenging a policy which has hitherto been held as sacred in Australia as the Munro doctrine was in America has all but submerged Mr Barwell in a torrent of criticism and abuse. Another State Premier, Mr Theodore of Queensland calls it "dangerous and unpatriotic propaganda of the worst type" and other politicians refer eloquently to the unlimited natural resources of that part of the country. In reply to his critics Mr. Barwell asked pertinently: "If white men can develop the Territory, then why in the name of all that is reasonable has such a tropical paradise been so long neglected?" So far nobody has answered his query. The reason is that Australians don't want to go there.

Cancel the Lot!

Intense agitation has been evoked throughout America by the proposal to give a bonus to soldiers who served in the great war. At first sight this would seem to be a domestic matter but actually it is one of deep international significance. Five milliard dollars would have to be found to give the proposal adequate effect and it is the source whence this vast sum shall come that is the main cause of the agitation. President Harding considers a general sales tax the only feasible means of securing the necessary funds but there is a large element in the country clamouring for payment out of Europe's debts to America. This demand is not so much a further expression of the boomerang policy of "making the foreigner pay," as exemplified by passport exactions; it is a sign that America is still oblivious to the utter impossibility of the war's enormous debts ever being paid in full and is determined to prolong the present economic chaos by subjecting the exchanges to hopeless strain. Only one debt is even remotely payable and that one is ours. Britain in not a pauper nation and she will never dishonour her compacts, even though her sacrifices saved America as much as herself. As Wells said, writing from Washington, "If America insists on her industries being buried under a pyramid of gold and manufactured articles, British bankers and manufacturers believe they can with an effort manage the job and pull through. The exchanges may take some strange flights and dives in the process. The British system may collapse, even as the German system seems to be collapsing, but it is a strained situation anyhow. The British think the effort worth trying and the risk worth taking." Proof of this determination is forthcoming in the intention, announced among to-day's cables, to raise £25 000,000 to meet six months' interest on our loan to America. But the hopeless folly of it all!

HONGKONG'S 1922 RACE MEETING.

SECOND DAY'S PROGRAMME.

SUN STAR WINS THE DERBY.

FAVOURITE LOSES BY HALF A LENGTH.

With their discrimination sharpened by what glimpses of form were visible yesterday racegoers settled down at Happy Valley this morning to what promised to be an interesting programme. The weather was inclined to be dull but that did not at all interfere with the customary brilliance of "Derby Day" as a social fixture. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Stubbs arrived in time to see the first race and by noon a considerable crowd had gathered.

Chief interest of course centred in the race for the Hongkong Derby. The chances of likely candidates were keenly discussed and everyone was talking about Roman Pride whose showing yesterday made it favourite in the selling sweeps last night. Kiangsu King and Flying Mouse were considered "good things" for a place but Sun Star had pretty well dropped out of favour.

So far Mr. Hill is showing the way to the rest of the jockeys. He has four wins to his credit and the next best, Mr. Vida and Mr. Pinkerton have only been able to manage two each. Sir Paul Chater heads the list of winning owners with two firsts, a second and a third.

There were two or three big dividends paid out in the "straight out" pari-mutuel yesterday. Benz in the fifth race brought in $93.10 for his backers and in the tenth event $93 was the reward of those who had detected a winner in Hatton. Mr. Pinkerton was the Jockey in each case.

Investments on ountain Bear whom Mr. Hill piloted ome in the third race showed a return of $64.10. Not a great deal of money could have been made on the place "tote." $20,10 was the highest dividend paid and in a number of the races all three placed horses paid under $6. In the challenge cup, for instance, the payments went—$5.20, $5.10 and $5.20. One man who had taken two tickets on the third horse for a win and twenty for a place was very chagrined when he discovered that he lost $8 on the transaction.

Most backers rely on place betting to cover a certain proportion of their "straight out" investments and a question worthy of the consideration of the Jockey Club is whether a 20 per cent commission is not altogether too much to deduct. Ten per cent would still give the a handsome return and since it would make place betting much more popular than it is at present they would probably discover very soon that they were making as much money as ever.

The band of the "King's" made their first public appearance at Happy Valley this morning. Under the baton of Bandmaster H. D. Hensley they played this programme:-

1. March.—"Lo ine"..Gaune.
2. Overture.—" ue Dame" .... Suppe.
3. Intermezzo.—"hat Lake of Shadows" .. ..Paul.
4. Russian Pea n Dance.— "Kukusk ....Lehar.
5. Selection.—A ttle Dutch girl" .... Kalman.
6. Valse.—"Hissate" .... Godin.
7. Selection.—H.M.S. Pinafore" .... Sullivan.
8. Turkish Intermezo.—"On the Bosphoro".........Lincke.
9. Characteris Sketch.—"Kittie's Kourtshi ....Mackenzie.
10. Fox Trot.—Cuban Moon".... ....Spencer.

Honesty Dahlia got away well from a good start and was able to keep in front all the way. When they came into the home straight the three Dahlias were leading but at the distance post Fighting King made a stern bid for second place. He fought it out with Hope Dahlia for a few lengths and then Hope Dahlia shot ahead. Honest Dahlia finished easily with four lengths to spare, and Hope Dahlia came next two lengths in front of Fighting King.

Sir Paul's Martial Dahlia, 155lb.. (Mr. Dupree) 0
Mr. Soares's Dunoon, 158lb...... (Mr. White) (scr.)

It was an unsatisfactory start and Roman Pride, the favourite was left behind. Martial Dahlia got well away followed by Sincerity Dahlia and Toyshop. Sun Star was coming up and by the time the judge's box had been passed for the first time, had come ahead of the two Dahlias. Roman Pride and Toyshop were running last—New Year's Gift gave up on reaching the incline. Sun Star kept in front and at the bend had a lead of two lengths. Roman Pride who had been gradually making up for lost time ran up into second place with Sincerty Dahlia and Flying Mouse not far behind. For the last few lengths it was a neck and neck fight between Roman Pride and Sun Star with Flying Mouse and Sincerity, Dahlia struggling for third place some lengths behind. With an extra effort Doyle pushed Sun Star ahead and the favourite was beaten by half a length. Sincerity Dahlia many lengths behind ran into third place.

Time 3min. 20 2/5 secs.

The first prize in the Derby cash sweep fell to Mr. A. A. Guterres, partner of Messrs. Basto and Co., share and general brokers, whose ticket No. 626 brought him $11,155. Last year ticket No. 1497 gave the lucky holder, the manager of the Hongkong Kinema Theatre, a return of $10,806.

Last year's Derby was won by Hill on Invincible King in 3.08 3/5 which beat the previous record of 3.09 made by Coronation Rose.

CHARGE AGAINST LAWYER DISMISSED.

[China Mail SPECIAL.]

SHANGHAI, February 20.

Charges of defacing an official document in the Chinese City Court were brought against T. C. Liang, a Chinese lawyer in the Mixed Court yesterday before the British Assessor, Mr. Blackburn and Magistrate Kwan. It was alleged the defendant defaced the document, a Chinese court summons served on Liang's father, formerly compradore of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, by initialling it in pencil when served. Liang testified that the initials meant acknowledgment. The case was dismissed.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

After a prolonged stay in Hongkong, Mr. A. H. P. Koe has returned to Shanghai.

A fancy dress dinner dansant will be held at Repulse Bay to-night. Miss Rita Shields will give further captivating jazz melodies.

The Singapore Free Press learns that a strike, which may prove to be serious, has broken out among the coolies employed at the docks in Batavia.

Not having been fully subscribed, the Tack Kee Club sweep has been cancelled, according to an advertisement in this issue. Holders of tickets will have their money returned.

Six cases of small-pox, three fatal and one imported, were reported during the 48 hours ended yesterday, also three of cerebro spinal fever (one fatal) and two of plague. All were Chinese.

A Shanghai racing fixture card for 1922 which has just been issued shows that there are to be 33 days' racing through the year, of which four have already been worked off. The Shanghai Race Club will have 14 days, the International Recreation Club 18 and the Paper Hunt Club one. The recuperating interval is from June 5 to September 23.

A reminder of bygone days can be seen in Shanghai harbour at present. The "William Moller" is a four masted barque that sailed the seven seas under the German flag for many long years. She is now the "William Dollar" and came into port on Monday evening towed by three powerful tugs to her berth at the Dollar wharf. Most of the oldtimers have been "improved" by the addition of auxiliary steam power and other frills not so the "William Moller," whose clean suit of sails is still untarnished by the breath of the smokestack.

CRICKET.

The following will represent the H.K.C.C. on the Club ground on Saturday the 25th instant against the I.R.C., play commencing at 2.15 p.m. :—E. J. R. Mitchell (Captain), C. Blaker, H. H. Benson, L. J. Davies, Major H. M. Edwards; E. G. Lammert, Lieut. B. S. Leader, L. D. McNicoll, G. H. Piercy, R. E. A. Webster and F. N. Young.

Lady Chater's, Gold Finch 150lb (Mr. Spinks) 0
Mr. Cragholm's Bajardo, 147lb. (Mr. Spragge.) 0
Mr. Duds' Fishshop, 147lb. (Mr. Remedios.) 0
Mr. Dyer's Kilwinning, 150lb. (Mr. Bulteel) 0

Goldfinch bolted from the start and led by several lengths for a while but was unable to keep it up. Gabriel Junks and Kilmarnock took over the lead and remained a good distance in front until Cassia River came up. There was a good finish, Kilmarnock getting home by a length from Cassia River with Gabriel Junks a short head behind.

Time, 3 min. 33. 6 secs.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS.

DELEGATES EXPECTED THIS EVENING.

The strike position remains unchanged. On receipt of the communication from the Secretary of Chinese Affairs yesterday the seamen's delegates left for Canton. Their return with the reply to the proposals is expected this afternoon.

There has been an increase of about 11,000 tons in the shipping in harbour. Vessels in port this morning were :—

	Ships.	Tonnage.
British	73	125,615
Chinese	35	28,115
Japanese	16	38,879
American.....	11	22,3 4
Dutch........	5	14,753
French	5	3,792
Norwegian....	10	10,412
Portuguese ...	1	1,145
Siamese	1	1,012
Swedish	1	44
	158	246,141

Yesterday the figures were 152 ships aggregating 235,188 tons.

Arrivals include the Itola from Singapore which brought a large cargo of rice from Singapore. The Hanoi, from Haiphong, brought in a considerable consignment of cattle, pigs, chicken and rice.

The "Providence" has returned from Canton, and is lying at Taikoo. The "Wuhu" arrived from Shanghai and is lying at Junk Bay.

An interesting vessel, though not connected with the strike, is the ketch "Fedra." This is manned by four Swedish naval officers. She left Karlskrona on Sept. 25, 1920 and sailed from Yokohama on January 20. She is commanded by Mr S. Tamm.

Ships leaving port included the "Andre Lebon" and the "Andes Maru."

MORE TROUBLE

It is reported that the coolies working on rice junks have presented a petition for a 30 per cent. increase in wages, together with demands that the coolies weigh all rice loaded into steamers; that all samples of rice be given to them and that they be allowed to appropriate all rice sweepings. The employers have not yet replied. As far as can be gathered the matter is not serious, simply involving the question of perquisites as between employees.

ARSON ALLEGED.

JOSS PAPER AND GUN POWDER.

An alleged attempt to set fire to No. 383, Queen's Road West was mentioned to Magistrate Wood this morning and next Tuesday was fixed for the hearing.

A passer-by in a ricsha, in the early hours of Sunday morning, saw smoke issuing from the staircase of the house. He went to see what he could do to help the inmates and found, apparently, that they did not need any assistance. Joss paper, gunpowder and kerosene in tins, it is said, had been piled up on the staircase. The police were called in and they found that the bonfire included a piece of the lining of a dress basket belonging to one of the people in the house. Four men and one woman are charged with arson.

BEWARE OF COLDS.

CHILDREN are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

The Sliding Action of Shirley President Braces Moves With the Ease of a Canoe

It is the sliding, gliding adjustability in every part of SHIRLEY PRESIDENT BRACES that forms that even balance.

SHIRLEY PRESIDENT BRACES are patterned after the human anatomy. Wherever there is a demand by the muscles for action in one regard, another set of muscles of the human body gives or takes up the slack, and SHIRLEY PRESIDENT BRACES act in unison in all muscular requirements.

"PILGRIM OF PILGRIMS."

LAVISH PRAISE FOR BALFOUR.

LONDON, February 20.

Unstinted praise was lavished on Mr. Balfour at a Pilgrims dinner in the Hotel Victoria.

The Duke of York paid a tribute to the "pilgrim of pilgrims" and his geniality, transparent kindliness, profound knowledge, and untiring energy.

The American Ambassador, Colonel Harvey declared that Mr. Balfour was enshrined in the hearts of the American people. British and American relations had come down from the air and now rested on solid ground. He rejoiced that the peace of the Pacific was assured since the Senate's ratification of the Washington decisions was certain and much sooner than commonly anticipated.

COALITION SETBACK.

LABOUR WINS TWO SEATS.

LONDON, February 20.

Considerable anti-Coalition turnovers were recorded in the by-elections for North Camberwell and Clayton. The former was captured by Ammon (Labour) 7854 with Meller (Conservative) 6717; and the latter by Sutton (Labour) 14,662 with Flanagan (Coalition—Unionist) 11,038. Both are Labour gains.

GENERAL DISARMAMENT.

LEAGUE COMMITTEE MEETS.

PARIS, February 20.

In accordance with a League of Nations resolution a mixed commission consisting of six civilians, six military experts, four economists and financiers, three employers, and three labour representatives met to discuss reduction of armaments. They decided to ask all governments what armaments they considered necessary for national defence and international obligations.

KOEPENICK HERO

MAN WHO HOAXED A TOWN DEAD.

The death has taken place of Wilhelm Voigt, the notorious "Captain of Koepenick," who had been living here for some time.

It was 15 years ago when Wilhelm Voigt, lame cobbler and gaolbird, 57 years of age, set the world laughing and the German army in a rage by his famous Koepenick exploit. Koepenick is a little town near Berlin and one day in October 1906 Voigt, disguised as a captain of the Prussian Guards, and accompanied by 4 real grenadiers with fixed bayonets, forced a way into the office of the Burgomaster.

"You are my prisoner by the Kaiser's orders and you will be immediately taken to Berlin,' announced the captain.

"I beg . . . ," the Burgomaster interposed.

"You have nothing to beg," interrupted the swaggering captain, "I have already told you that you are my prisoner."

The unfortunate Burgomaster was escorted to a carriage guarded by more real grenadiers with fixed bayonets, whom the captain had previously persuaded that he was an officer of the Guards. The carriage went off towards Berlin.

In the meantime the captain, with his troops, proceeded to the office of the town accountants, informed the staff that they were under arrest and demanded all the available cash, £200, which was handed over. The captain gave a receipt and departed with the booty, leaving his troops in command of the town with orders to fire if the citizens made any resistance.

The swindle was discovered upon the Burgomaster's arrival in Berlin, and the receipt there of a telegram from the Koepenick authorities, saying: "Town Hall occupied by troops. Implore you to give reasons, to quiet citizens.'

Voigt was arrested about a week later in his lodgings in Berlin. He smilingly handed over to the police £100, all he had left of his loot. When asked if he had ever served, he replied cynically and truthfully, "Oh, yes, 15 years in prison."

His exploit earned him 2 years in prison and gifts said to have amounted to £2,000 from admirers. In 1910 he came to London and did a good trade by selling signed photographs in the streets.

IN THE SOCIAL SWIM.

On Saturday the 11th took place the Prize giving of the Diocesan Girls School, Kowloon. The Bishop of Victoria presided, and Mrs. Severn gave away the prizes. A very pretty part of the programme was the "Enchanted Glee," a very pretty little operetta and charmingly put on by the well trained pupils of the School. An unrehearsed effect in the middle was the smashing of the Bishop's chair, leaving His Lordship on his back on the ground. Major Cassel left us on the 11th for California. We all hope his trip home will restore him to health, and that we will see him back at the end of the year. The "City of Simla" brought a lot of new military officers, amongst others Col. Heard, R.A.P.C. (who succeeds Col. Bowen) and Mrs. Heard, Major Gandy, D.S.O., R.E. (Major Edwards' successor) and Mrs. Gandy. Congratulations to Mr. "Johnny" Bell Irving, whose wife presented him with a son and heir on Tuesday. On Tuesday I took advantage of the really awful weather to go to the Hongkong Hotel to see "Mr. Jazz" and incidentally to dance. It was a wonderful performance, and my partner promptly made up a party for the dinner dansant at "Repulse Bay" on Wednesday, which was very well attended. There was another on Thursday, when Miss Rita Shield, the "Melody Girl" performed. On Monday afternoon Mr. Harry Ore gave a very successful piano recital at the City Hall.

I hear the booking is good for the Fancy Dress Ball to be held tomorrow in aid of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at the City Hall. Let us hope it will be a great success, for undoubtedly it is a society much needed in Hongkong. I have heard some pretty strong comments passed in the acquittal of the bullock driver for cruelty to his bullock the other day. If it was a case of ignorance then I think the sooner he is taught the meaning of pain the better. I have a vivid recollection as a small child, being caught pulling the wings off flies, and the very painful (to me) interview that took place afterwards. I never did it again!

The finals of the U.S.R.C. tournaments, which were to have been played on Wednesday, had to be postponed till Sunday, as the courts were practically under water that day.

My husband went to the memorial service at St. John's Cathedral for Sir Henry May on Thursday. What struck him most was the small number of people there. Of course people change quickly in Hongkong and memories are proverbially short in the East, still one would have thought that more than a couple of hundred (at an outside estimate) would have turned up to do honour to "Paddy" May, who was not only a Governor, but had spent most of the best years of his life in the Colony. The service was, he says, very impressive. The Governor and Lady Stubbs were both present, and he also noticed Sir George Fowler, Dr. and Mrs. Claud Severn, Sir William Rees Davies, Mr. Kemp, Mr. Hallifax, Mr. and Mrs. Parr, Mr. Pollock, Mr. Irving, and many others.

I went out again to Repulse Bay on Thursday, and again there was a large crowd of people. This week we can go out on three days Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday, the dinner on Thursday being Fancy Dress. I hear a motor bus service is shortly being organised, which will take you out there at a dollar a head. A very good idea when one is going out on one's own to a dinner there, but somehow I am not sure that a drive back in a private car has not something to recommend it.

We are all of us glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Parr back again, both of them very popular members of the Colony. The new Regiment—the 102nd Grenadiers—arrived in the "Dufferin" on Friday morning. We shall be all sorry to say good-bye to the 22nd Punjabis, who sail on Monday, and therefore just miss the Races. Major and Mrs. Leslie Smith are, I hear, not going with the Regiment, as he is going up for the Staff College examination.

Mrs. "Dick" Hancock and her sister-in-law Mrs. "Harry" left for home last week. Doctor and Mrs. Moore have also gone home. Much sympathy will be felt for them, as she had to go home to undergo a serious operation. Mrs. Harry Woods has returned from a six months' trip in Australia.

I fear this will be almost the last letter I shall be able to write to you, as my husband has been transferred North. It means promotion, I believe, but I shall be very sorry to leave Hongkong, as I have been here so long. However it may only be a temporary measure, and I may be back again next cold weather, when—if the Editor permits—we may renew acquaintance. In any case I am not going till after next week, so I shall be able to say goodbye then. Despite the horrible weather, the dance at the U.S.R.C. on Saturday was quite a success.

The entries for the annual tennis tournament at the Hongkong Cricket Club have closed. Messrs. R. and H. Hancock are defending their title for the doubles championship. I wish them every success, though I fear I shall not be here to see them play. Major Leslie Smith won the open finals at the U.S.R.C., beating Captain Havelock Davies fairly easily. The same player with Major Lloyd won the handicap doubles this afternoon, beating Mr. Claxton and Doctor Smalley. I unfortunately did not see the game, as I never thought they would be able to play after last night's rain so went out to tea at Repulse Bay instead. I am told Colonel Wakefield, when he leaves us shortly, goes to Singapore as C.R.A. I expect he will wake up the Masonic Lodges in the Malay States. We race four days this week, and I only wish I could get and pass on to you some tips. I have evolved a very good one myself in "Sincerity Dahlia" for the Derby. It was when my husband told me who had drawn him in the Club Sweep, and I am going to back him for one, backing the drawer's luck, well, I only hope the rain will keep off, and it will be nice and warm, and we will be able to wear our most becoming frocks. I have a dream for one day, anyway, so look for the prettiest frock on—no matter which day—and you will recognize the writer. Anyway, I hope the Derby will come back to Hongkong, as if I mistake not, Mr. George Potts has won three years running and is going to make an effort to lift it again with, I presume, Cutty Sark King. Anyway, as I said before, let us pray for a fine weather, so that we can wear our latest frocks.

ROULETTE DANCE.

KOWLOON THEATRE'S NOVEL ATTRACTION.

Hard on the heels of the success achieved by last week's fancy dress dance, the Kowloon Theatre promises another enjoyable evening for devotees of the popular pastime tonight when it will hold a roulette dance. This latest diversion takes the form of an ordinary dance with one novel and exciting addition. The floor is marked out as a roulette board and towards the end of each dance a wheel is spun. The couple having the good fortune to stand on the spot corresponding to that indicated by the wheel receive something to serve as a souvenir of their luck—prizes in a word. The fun and excitement possible from this novel pleasure are obvious, and a very happy revel is anticipated this evening.

SICKLY BABIES.

Sickly babies—little ones who are troubled with their stomachs and bowels, whose teething is painful, digestion bad, and who cannot sleep well—may be made healthy and happy by Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy.

Mrs. Wilfred Damons, of Val Brilliant, Quebec, writes:—"Please send me a vial of Baby's Own Tablets as I would not care to be without them. I have used them for constipation and vomiting and am well pleased with the result."

The Tablets are recommended also as a remedy for worms, and to break up simple cold and fevers. Obtainable from medicine dealers, also at 60 cents the vial post free, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96, Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

MARRIED AT SEA.

TOO LONG TO WAIT ON LAND.

The marriage has taken place, in novel conditions, of two Americans, Lieutenant Emerson, adjutant of Admiral Niblack, commanding the United States Fleet in European waters, who is now at Naples, and Miss Gertrude Child, of Washington.

Not wishing to wait for the time fixed by Italian law before celebrating the wedding, the couple embarked in the United States merchant ship "Steel Engineer," which was leaving Naples for Spain, together with the Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick chaplain of the United States warship "Utah," and three witnesses, officers of the "Utah."

As soon as the merchantman was three miles from the Italian coast Lieutenant Emerson and Miss Child were married by Mr. Kirkpatrick in the state room of the "Steel Engineer." The newly married couple and the witnesses and chaplain returned to Naples in the "Utah's" launch, which had followed the "Steel Engineer." The couple are proceeding to Tunis.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail)

MORE TROUBLE IN IRELAND.

LONDON, February 20th.

The recent assertion of Mr. Collins that a coup d'etat was being prepared in South Ireland is corroborated by a remarkable manifesto issued by the South Tipperary brigade of the Irish Republican Army repudiating the authority of the Provisional Government and the I.R.A. headquarters as inimical to the republic. A similar revolt has broken out in East Limerick. De Valera, continuing his anti-treaty campaign, spoke at Cork, claiming that the I.R.A. favoured his policy. The I.R.A. is seizing cattle, motors, and other goods in South Tipperary on account of unpaid levies. The I.R.A. at Cork burned Dublin newspapers because a correspondent alleged intimidation in the appointment of delegates to the Ardfheis or All Ireland Sinn Fein convention to-morrow.

GENAN CONFERENCE.

PARIS, February 20th.

In an interview with Le Journal the Teheco-Slovakian Prime Minister, M. Benes, said that nothing satisfactory was to be expected from the Genoa Conference if it was unduly hurried. The programme should be carefully digested. In any event, no plan for Europe's reconstruction can succeed outside of France's and Britain's co-operation.—Havas.

GREEKS SEIZE FRENCH STEAMER.

LONDON, February 20th.

The French press is indignant at the Greek seizure in Greek waters, of a cargo of coal on the French steamer Espoir, which was bound for Mersina, on the ground that it was contraband of war. The press points out that the incident is unfortunate as the Allies were about to offer to mediate in the Turco-Greek War.

The French Government in a Note to Greece demanded the release of the Espoir. Greece replying that despite her friendship towards France she cannot endanger the safety of the Greek army. She concludes by saying that the Espoir will be released after discharging her cargo.

ADMIRALTY ECONOMIES.

LONDON, February 20th.

In accordance with the policy of economy the Admiralty, in August, propose to reduce the number of Admirals allowed on the active list from ninety-two to seventy-seven. It is believed that this step will not affect the three Admirals of the Fleet, namely, Admirals Jellicoe, Beatty and Wemyss, who are surplus to the establishment specially promoted for war services, also four Rear-Admirals seconded for service under Dominion and foreign governments.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

£200 FOR FINDING MAN WHO IS "POISONING A TOWN."

One death and one internment in a lunatic asylum is the result of a four years' mysterious campaign of anonymous letter writing in the little country town of Tulle, in the Correze Department of France.

The latest victim of these accusations of immorality and vice which are being spread through the town is M. Gibert, clerk to the town council. He was one of the principal people attacked in these letters, and he became so distressed that he went out of his mind and has just died insane.

For four years the unknown author of these unsigned letters has been sowing suspicion between husband and wife, casting doubts on the honesty of employees and making reflections on the chastity of women. Police investigations have failed to trace the culprit, though from the familiarity he shows with the private lives of prominent citizens of Tulle he is apparently a fellow citizen.

At a meeting of the town council the strongest appeals were made for the detection of the writer, who, it was stated, is poisoning the life of the town. An immediate subscription was opened which it is hoped will yield £200 within a few days, to offer as a reward [illegible] leading to the [illegible] individual.

INDIAN OCEAN ROMANCE.

WRECKED CREW'S WIRELESS.

A romantic story of the rescue of a shipwrecked crew, through their own efforts in transhipping the wireless apparatus of their vessel to the shore, is told in the Signal, the official organ of the Association of Wireless and Cable Telegraphists.

The motor-vessel "Elmaren" was stranded off Six Island, Chagos Archipelago (in the middle of the Indian Ocean), some months ago, and and it was decided to abandon the vessel.

The crew landed on the Ile Sud Est, one of the islands of the archipelago, taking ashore the vessel's receiver and spare aerial. The latter was hung between a coconut palm and a signal mast already on the island; and later the whole of the ship's installation was dismantled and taken ashore. A hatch cover which had floated ashore served as a bed for the engine and the generator and coconut shells were used as fuel.

Signals from vessels more than 2,000 sea miles away were heard quite well, and eventually a message was sent via the Dutch steamer "Tosari." As a result the motor-vessel "Tjisaren," homeward bound from Australia was ordered to put in at Ile Sud Est to rescue the crew. Later signals were exchanged with the "Tjisaren," 650 miles south-east of Six Island, and this ship was advised of the crew's exact position. All arrangements for the embarkation were also made by wireless.
